Mitten by a Dog.

A well known young lady, while playing with a colley dog yesterday, was laddy bitter in the eye. The animal became infuriated and flew at her while in a stooping position to the act of caressing it.

The Community to B- Startled.
Judge E. F. Hall, one of the commissioners investigating land frauds, examined severel winesses yesterday. To-day he leaves for Austin, and will be absent until August 14, when he will continue the investigation. The report that he has to make will, it is said, considerably startle our community.

Died From Lockjaw.

Died From Lockjaw.

James Green Edwards, whose death was recorded yesterday, was the culored boy whofell in an attempt to board the cars and had his foot thereby lacerated in a frightful manner. For a time be seemed to do well, but tetanus, or lockjaw set in and the patient succumbed. The young man was laid to rest this morning.

Runaway.

Considerable slam was created on Alamo street by the appearance of a runaway horse. At the carner of Cummerce street it collided with an express wagon, damaging the wheels. Ultimately Officers Gleason and Oppermann succeeded in stopping the horse before any further damage was done. The horse belonged to Mr. Garibaidi. It is a fine animal and is much injured.

and is much injured.

For Safe Reeping.

Sheriff Daugherty, of Frio county, brought in and placed in the county jail, for safe keeping, a Mexican named Cerario Lesarson, the sherherd who shot John Hamilton, at Frio Town, last Friday night. Hamilton is reported to be in a dangerous condition. He was shot while attempting to prevent the Mexican from shooting a stockman named Dan Lutie. Dan Little Orippied by the Brotherhood.

There is no improvement in the working of the telegraph office in this city and complaints come in from all sides of the serious delays. These delays are perhaps unavoidable, but they tend to show how much the Brotherhood have crippled the gigantic corporation.

The Giass Policeman.

There was a peculiar scene this morning on the Military plaza, when the giant form of a uniformed man was seen between two men of rather small atsture. It reminded the speciators fercibly of Gulliver among the Lillipotiums, but it was only the giant policeman conveying two inclusives to the city jail.
